

Committee Discussion

- From what you've learned in today's presentations and your experience, how has laboratory testing quality been impacted by accrediting organization and exempt state standards?
- Are there differences between these standards and CLIA requirements that contribute to this impact?
- Where should accreditation and state standards focus in the future?
- Other comments?