

---

Questions for CLIAC Consideration

Electronic Health Records and CLIA

- How can the CLIA requirements be clarified as related to electronic -
  - Test ordering
  - Result reporting
  - Sharing of test information
- Are there mechanisms that could be used to assist in the dissemination of accurate information pertaining to CLIA and electronic health records?

Electronic Health Records and CLIA

- In light of advancements in information technology, electronic health records and laboratory information transfer since CLIA was implemented, are there remaining gaps that need to be addressed?
- Are there other CLIA issues related to information technology and exchange that should be brought to CLIA's attention in the future?

Electronic Laboratory Information Exchange

- How can accurate and complete exchange of laboratory information through electronic channels be assured?
- What are the gaps related to electronic information transfer and exchange?
- Are there unique needs for electronic information exchange among laboratories, and between laboratories and other healthcare providers?

Electronic Laboratory Information Exchange

- Who are other stakeholders that need to be part of both short and long term solutions?
- Are steps already underway to address the issues?
- Are there additional related items that should be on the CLIAC agenda for a future meeting?

