

2024 NHANES Content Solicitation Form

Thank you for your interest in partnering with NHANES. Please answer all questions on this form, providing brief responses (3-5 sentences) to limit your letter of solicitation to 2 pages. References can be provided for established protocols or technical or equipment descriptions. While we are requesting a financial commitment, we understand that this is based on your knowledge of your current or anticipated budget only.

After completion of all questions on the form, save a copy for yourself and email a copy to DHANES_PB@cdc.gov with subject line addressed as 2024 NHANES New Content.

Date of submission:

Proposer name(s):

Affiliation:

Email(s):

Content title:

Age groups targeted:

Component proposed (select all content that is included):

Examination

Questionnaire

Laboratory

Briefly describe the proposed content:

Provide the public health importance or significance of proposed content:

For examination or laboratory content (if applicable), provide any technical requirements, including specific equipment needs:

Specify any safety and/or privacy issues, including exclusion criteria (if applicable):

By checking this box, we understand that we will secure funding for the proposed component as well as any cognitive, feasibility, and/or pilot testing that may be needed.

Other comments or additional information:

